21 As noted in Defendant's Motion to Continue Trial (ECF 182), a concern arose last week that one 22 of the government's trial witnesses, Secret Service Special Agent Richard LaTulip had potentially been 23 exposed to COVID-19. During the week of March 9, 2020, SA LaTulip participated in proffer sessions 24 with an incarcerated person (the Profferor) who later complained of a fever and sore throat. The 25 Profferor had recently been in Europe. A COVID-19 test was administered on the Profferor, and the 26 results came back negative. Accordingly, there is no heightened concern as to SA LaTulip's exposure to 27 COVID-19.

1 SA LaTulip has been informed of the further trial continuance granted on March 18, 2020. SA
2 LaTulip is prepared to testify when trial resumes on April 13, 2020.
